

Her Success is Your Business

Your Organization's Educational Improvement Tax Credits Can Benefit Kids in Crisis

Founded in 1910, Hoffman Homes for Youth is a residential treatment program serving children with severe mental health and behavioral issues related to trauma, abuse, neglect and loss. Hoffman Academy, our on-site day school, provides specialized education in a therapeutic setting, to meet the complex educational and psychological needs of our children in care. Hoffman Academy ("Hoffman Homes, Inc.") is a designated Educational Improvement Organization (EIO), which qualifies us to receive Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) funding from qualifying Pennsylvania businesses, or any business that pays taxes to the state of Pennsylvania.

How can businesses help support the kids at Hoffman Academy?

Through EITC, your business can designate Hoffman Homes, Inc. as the recipient of up to 75% of your annual taxes—or 90%, if you agree to a two-year commitment. This ensures that your tax money is put to worthy use at an organization of your choosing, while also offering a substantial tax credit. Participating businesses can also count their EITC-designated funds towards their charitable contributions, all the while helping some of our state's most vulnerable and at-risk children.

What does this mean for your business?

Your generosity allows you to direct your tax dollars as you see fit, supporting one of Pennsylvania's most longstanding and worthy organizations, committed to the health and welfare of kids in crisis...and there's no additional cost to you! You're earning tax credit to support your business, simply designating Hoffman Homes, Inc. as the directed recipient of your tax dollars.

What do I need to do?

The process is simple. Businesses need only fill out and submit a brief online application and submit it beginning July 2, 2018, as soon as possible on or after that date. Applications are processed until the credits are exhausted, so timely response is crucial.

When can you register to participate?

This year, businesses may apply beginning on Monday, July 2, 2018; the tax credits are limited, so having your application ready to send as soon as possible on July 2 is best. Businesses that have fulfilled their two-year commitment and wish to reapply for EITC renewal or businesses that are in midway through their two-year commitment may reapply beginning Tuesday, May 15, 2018.

When you receive written approval of your application from Pennsylvania's Department of Community and Economic Development (DCED), you may send your contribution within 60 days to Hoffman Academy. We will mail you a letter of acknowledgment and a receipt that you can send to DCED as verification of your contribution.
